

I want the main index.html file to look like this (without the red stuff those are just notes)

Gengar (h1)

I want the image to be an imbedded link that leads to gengar's wiki page Also this image of gengar is just a placeholder.

index

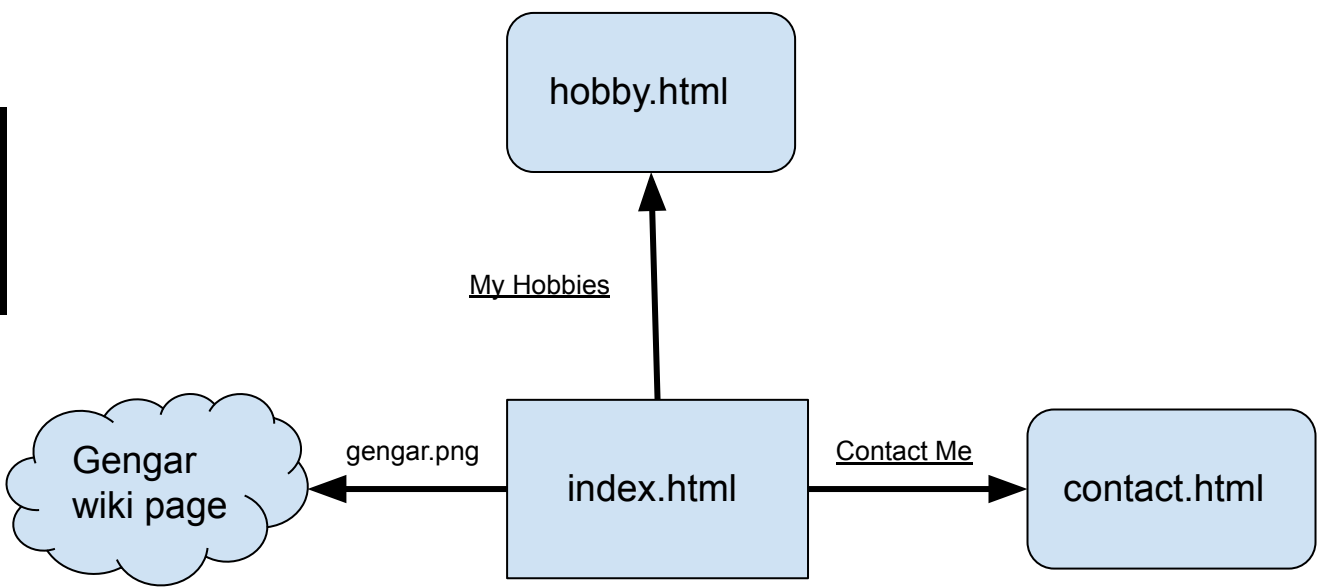

So this website is going to have 3 different .html files including the index file. It will have 3 links, 2 of them are text and will lead to their corresponding .html files, and the other is the profile picture which will lead to an external site being gengar's wiki page.

Here's what I want the folder to look like

NOTE: add a nice black bowtie to gengar in gengar.png
NEVERMIND I FOUND A PICTURE OF HIM IN A TIE

FOR NOW, just add lorem ipsum text and use a placeholder image

Copy paste from here

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Ut quis faucibus augue. Ut tristique tortor quam, ac tincidunt quam congue vel. Integer tincidunt lectus porttitor nulla pellentesque, at congue libero tincidunt. Sed commodo, neque ut commodo vulputate, orci leo semper enim, non semper ante justo et mauris. Suspendisse suscipit massa ac ultrices mollis. Morbi vestibulum dapibus sapien a gravida. Vivamus non scelerisque turpis. Cras sit amet ultrices nulla, eget rutrum dui. Ut at tempus lacus.

Curabitur non consequat ex, vitae pharetra sapien. Praesent rhoncus aliquam condimentum. Donec fermentum, arcu ut molestie aliquam, arcu augue congue neque, et auctor tellus nisi egestas turpis. Sed dapibus sollicitudin ex, a porta arcu. Nam tempus metus vel felis egestas, aliquet dictum risus sagittis. Aliquam erat volutpat. Sed mollis risus in placerat suscipit. Public Folder

Gengar face is just a placeholder image

Hobbies Include... (h1)

Hobby 1(h2)

Hobby 2(h2)

Hobby 3(h2)

hobby.html

Contact Me (h1)

Put use the contact me placeholder from one of the previous projects, them make it thematic later.

contact.html

Okay I looked up the footers it's extremely easy, and yes it needs to be added manually to each .html file.

Thematic stuff brainstorm over here

hobby.html

- The three hobbies can be:
- Stealing lives
 - Making Accursed Shadows Laugh
 - hanging out with the buddies yaaaa

contact.html

<!-- okay so here's the workflow (copy pasted from my text file inthe capstone project 1 folder)

1--Create all the folders and files I need:

---Assets
---Images
---gengar.png
---hobby1.png
---hobby2.png
---hobby3.png

---Public
---hobby.html
---contact.html

---index.html

2--Complete drawing up a schematic for what the website should look like in google drawings

3--add in all of the headings and paragraphs (lorem ipsum), format and add placeholder image into the index.html

3.5--open up main and figure out how to add a footer for the copyright section

4--add images, headings, and text placeholders to the hobby.html file

5--add in images, headings, and text placeholders for the contact.html file

6--embed links to the hobby.html and contact.html and gengar.png

7--write out the thematic text information and lots (look thru gengar wiki page)

7.3--get and add all of the images into the images folder

7.4--update the footer

7.5--replace all placeholders in index.html and all .html in public

8--Save and check if website is running smoothly

9--add the website to github

-----COMPLETION MARKER <3 MOVE ME DOWN TO MARK WHAT YOU'VE ALREADY COMPLETED -----
